Since the 18th century, miniature mini golf games became really popular attracting a lot of enthusiasts all over the globe. They get attracted to try miniature golf games because of the discipline, the precision but there are others who want to simply enjoy this leisure activity with their family, couples and friends.

There are a lot of miniature golf courses that people should explore and experience. Bring along a lot of friends to practice accuracy, patience and intellectual fortitude. Similar to the golf sport, miniature golf is ideally played in foursome where it is the maximum composition of a flight.

Many people make their own variations of miniature golf games, to make it more unique and interesting. Before one gets too excited and purchase a ticket, he or she must keep in mind the basic rules of the game.

The purpose of the game is to place the ball inside the hole by using minimal strokes possible. The person who can score the least wins, one should accumulate birdies, eagle, the rare albatross, and avoid bogeys, and double bogies and after the end of the course, the player with the least number of strokes wins. The winner is the one who has the utilized the least strokes for all the 18 holes.

In this game, there are still set of rules to follow for proper decorum and behavior. It is gracious to be reserved while playing the game. It is also polite to let the person who scored the least in the previous hole to tee off first. Showing off and bragging to celebrate a good shot is unnecessary, it is better to be conservative while enjoying your victory.

Keep in mind to handle the putter with care because you do not want it swinging to someone's head during the game. What this game requires is accuracy and precision because there are not driving range in miniature golf games and there is no need to show distance.

For putting stance, better stand with a square stance where the feet are about shoulder width apart. Situate close enough to the ball so that you can see eat clearly and you can bend you knees and body curls properly.

Many enthusiasts get attracted to miniature golf games and in order to hasten the pace of the game if the crowd is split into one more group so everybody may enjoy the amusing game.
